

Capricorn College for TVET participates in the DHET TVET Colleges Conference.

TVET College Conference started today, on Tuesday 18 November 2014 in Midrand, Gallagher Estate. The Minister of Higher Education and Training Honourable Dr Blade Nzimande is addressing college CEO/Principals and Deputy Principals for Academic and Corporate Services, Sector Education and Training Authorities and other stakeholders on issues pertaining to where TVET colleges comes from, what has been achieved since their (TVET Colleges) establishment and concrete actions to transform TVET college subsystem into a vibrant sector which develops human capacity and prepares students for the world of work in order to become economically active citizens.

During his address, The Minister encouraged colleges to have good relationship with employers to promote skills development amongst students. He criticized students who registered with TVET colleges but not attending classes. “Students must not use TVET college bursary fees like SASSA social grant, he said. CEO/Principals must be too strict when it comes to students and lecturers attendance, he added”.

Minister of Higher Education and Training Honourable Dr Blade Nzimande visited Capricorn College for TVET's exhibition stall at Gallagher Estate, Midrand this morning.

Capricorn College for TVET CEO together with Marketing Interns Mr Sipho Manamela and Lawrence Lekaka in Midrand, Gallagher Estate.